Subject: Fwd: ACS 253 Abstract Submitted (2652155)

Hello everyone,

I submitted the following for the Spring 2017 ACS meeting. Basically a presentation showing the results of our ES&T Letters paper. This is for the session: Poly- & Per-Fluoroalkyl Substances: Where, What, When, Why, Who & How

Best,

Detlef

Dear Detlef Knappe,

Your abstract has been successfully submitted for the 253rd ACS National Meeting in San Francisco, California to be held April 2-6, 2017.

PLEASE KEEP THIS EMAIL FOR FUTURE REFERENCE in the event you would like to view, modify, withdraw the abstract, or download a visa letter.

You are now listed as the submitter of the following abstract:

Abstract ID: 2652155

Title: Perfluoroalkyl Ether Carboxylic Acids: Occurrence in the Cape Fear River Watershed and Fate in Drinking Water Treatment Processes

Receipt of this notice does NOT indicate that it has been accepted into the technical program.

Prior to the abstract submission deadline for the meeting, check that:

- ◆ All authors are included and listed correctly
- ◆ Undergraduates have their advisors listed as co-authors

To view your abstract and to correct any part of it or to withdraw, please go to <http://maps.acs.org>. No changes to abstracts will be permitted after the submission deadline, with the exception of withdrawals.

If the abstract is accepted, you can access a Visa Letter at <http://maps.acs.org>. Visit <http://www.acs.org/meetings> for additional information on guidelines for visa applications.

Sincerely,
The American Chemical Society
